

Mt. VOMO CHARITY RUN

Help Cure Kids and WIN A RETURN HOLIDAY TO VOMO ISLAND!

By walking or running to the summit of Mt VOMO here on Vomo Island Resort, you can help our charity CURE KIDS and go in the draw to win 5 nights at VOMO.

Some guests take the challenge and walk to the summit, which generally takes about 15 minutes one way uphill. Others like to take the challenge and run to the summit. The record holder is currently Jason Croker with a time of 3 mins 41 seconds (3.41).

The Mt Vomo Challenge was launched by Australian Channel 7 Sports Commentator, Mark Beretta in 2016, who ran from the start to the summit in just 5.04. Mark Beretta challenges you "Are you Better than Beretta?" Whilst its fun to be the fastest to the top and hold this record, to go into the draw to win the 5 nights accommodation, anyone can walk or run to the summit to be in the running for the prize, as long as they have paid their $10 entry fee each time.

doing our bit to cure kids

Children are such a precious part of our communities and yet sadly, far too many lose their lives to illnesses that could be more readily treated in other parts of the world.

The Mt Vomo Charity Run is a fun way for our guests to donate to CURE KIDS, a charity organisation that focuses on raising funds for medical research and finding cures for childhood illnesses. Our goal is to raise awareness and funding for the Fiji division of Cure Kids, in association with Fiji Ministry of Health and Medical services.

Here in Fiji, money raised by VOMO is going towards improving outcomes for children living with rheumatic heart disease (RHD), which is a potentially life threatening condition affecting one in 50 school-aged children in Fiji. This is among the highest rates in the world. So every dollar will go a long way to benefitting young Fijians.

In 2016 and 2017 The Mt Vomo Challenge raised $10,000 for CURE KIDS. Let's see if we can aim even higher in 2018 and 2019 with your fantastic support.
